Cuyahoga County Community Mental Health Board Announces “Employee of the Year” Award

CLEVELAND, OHIO – The Cuyahoga County Community Mental Health Board (CCCMHB) each year honors a member of its staff who most exemplifies professionalism, devotion to duty and enthusiasm. The CCCMHB is pleased to announce that Ralph Piatak has been named “Employee of the Year” for 2005.

“Mr. Piatak is friendly, sensitive and helpful, and has exhibited his commitment by extending a helping hand to mental health service providers and our internal staff,” said William M. Denihan, CEO of the CCCMHB. “His efforts in the Fiscal Department over the last year ensured that our new financial system ran smoothly and that budgets were prepared on time.”

Denihan, the CCCMHB’s Board of Governors, and staff honored Piatak at the CCCMHB Annual Meeting Brunch on May 31, where Piatak was in attendance with his wife, Judy.

In 2005, Piatak worked extra hours, taking the time and effort to adapt to changes while implementing a new financial system at the CCCMHB. He is a conscientious employee who takes his job seriously, and provides cheerful assistance to others.

Piatak, Accountant II, began his career with the CCCMHB in March of 1998. He has a Bachelor’s degree in Accounting from Cleveland State University.
